CASE

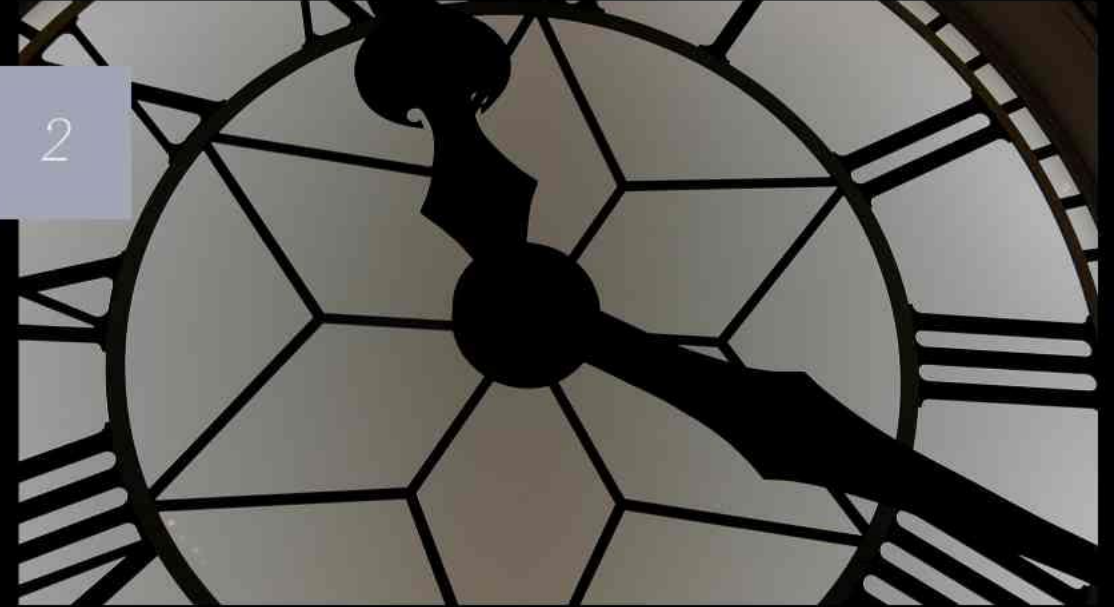

1

The construction company faced a complex legal dispute with a subcontractor regarding the terms and conditions of a multi-million dirham construction contract. The subcontractor claimed non-payment for completed work and breaches of contract, while the construction company argued the work was substandard and delayed, causing project setbacks and financial losses.

SOLUTION

2

Mariam Al Suwaidi Law Firm conducted a thorough analysis of the case, facilitated successful mediation sessions, and prepared a comprehensive legal strategy. This approach led to a mutually acceptable settlement, allowing the project to resume without further delays and preserving the professional relationship between the parties involved.
